OWN A PIECE OF HISTORY IN UPPER MARLBORO!

Charles Hill - History of property dates back to 1672. Charles Hill was named after Ninean Beall's son, Charles, born in 1672. Portions of Backland, Mellwood Park and The Cottage or Greenland were originally part of this estate. The historic home and carriage house on 3 acres was built in 1846 with additions to the home in 1905 and 1941. The main home features 4 levels, sunroom, 10' ceilings, original hardwood flooring and moldings, wood stairways, and 4 fireplaces! This property also features a guest house perfect for rental income or In-law suite. Property features an in-ground pool, fenced yard, two barns, 21 stalls. The Adjacent 8+ acres can be purchased with or without Historic Site. This property is ready to record for an additional 13 lot subdivision! Property is adjacent to 281 Acres owned by the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, which is a permanent experimental working farm! This property would also be a perfect location for Church, Embassy Retreat, Day Care Center, Senior Housing . . . Call for details!
